

Check how much you know now by matching the 12 new things that you learnt here in column one with when to use them in column two. Don't forget to read loudly with the learnt tone.

Match the following:

1	How would you like to stop by my house for lunch today?	When you meet someone where he/ she was not expected.
2	I knew you wouldn't let me down.	When you want to say 'not exactly'.
3	What are you doing here?	When you want to ask if something was a problem.
4	Could you deliver this package for me?	When you want to take leave or go.
5	First and then after that	When you want to request someone to deliver something for you.
6	How's your pain coming along?	When you want to emphasise 'yes'.

7	This is kind of fun.	When you are searching for someone or something.
8	Of course	When you want to ask what he/ she plans to do next [after one thing is over].
9	Got to go. See you later.	When someone has not disappointed you.
10	Is something a matter?	When you want to invite a friend for a meal.
11	I was looking for Noddy.	When you want to connect sentences to tell your plan give instructions/ directions.
12	What are you going to do next?	When you want ask how something is progressing.